Romance and Matrimony in Mar tinsburg, West Va.

The Martinsburg New Era vouches for the following bit of "love romance," which is but another chapter in the history of woman's strange caprices:

The dull monotony of our town was broken on Tuesday by a little episode which threw impeachment talk and excitement completely into the shade, and clearly demonstrated that truth is oftimes stranger than fiction. The facts are these: A young and rather prepossessing lady residing in the neighborhood of Bunker Hill was engaged to be married to a gentleman living in Missouri. Tuesday last was the day fixed for the celebration of the nuptials. The bridegroom and his attendants had arrived .-Monday evening found a convivial party at the residence of the bride's father.-among the number, the expectant bridegroom, his attendants and several near relatives, together with the youth and beauty of the surrounding

And there was present, also, as an invited guest, a former affianced and discarded lover of the prospective bride. But there was in this nothing strange. The hours, on rosy wings, flew swiftly by. It was a "merrie companie." The bridegroom, in blissful ignorance of "breakers ahead" was gliding smoothly and peacefully along in Fancy's bark, counting the hours that intervened between him and the consummation of his happiness. But alas! for fleeting hopes and woman's ficklessness. A change had come o'er the spirit of the blushing maiden's dreams-of her who had promised on the morrow, to become the partner of his joys and sorrows. Her heart wandered back to uer first love. What high tricks does Cupid sometimes play!

It was near the "witching hour of night," and the bridegroom was there, the license had been procured, the attendants were in waiting, and everything in readiness for the performance of the nuptial rites on the following morning. But what of that? The bride had changed her mind-an easy thing for woman to do. She had suddenly concluded not to give her hand to him who had journeyed from the far West to claim it. Her determination was made public, and there was a sensation in the assemblage. She said she would only wed the man of her first love. Tears and entreaties finally prevailed, and the "old gentleman," in a relenting mood, gave her permission to reverse her choice, She did it. We leave the reader to judge of the feelings of the expectant bridegroom when informed of the sudden turn affairs had taken. It must have given his taith in woman a pretty heavy shock, to say the least, but he must remember that there is "many a slip 'twixt the cup and lip," and that nothing is certain except death.

The wedding came off in the Presbyterian church in this place on Tuesday, according to previous arrangements, but it was like the play of Richard III. with Richard left out. There was a change of partners. The discarded lover was the bridegroom, and the bridegroom that was to be, became a discarded lover. The affair afforded much food for gossip, and has gia and general nervous derangements,—of been the "town talk" ever since. been the "town talk" ever since.

The disappointed lover bore up under it manfully. Instead of taking "a cup of cold pizen," he took the first train for his Western home, preferring not to realize how bitter a thing it is to look into happiness through another man's eyes.

NEW VIEWS. - Among the most curious views on the subject of matrimony we have ever seen, are those lately enunciated by Mrs. Elizabeth Oakes Smith, one of the foremost of women's rights reformers. She contends that only handsome men and women ought to marry. Let others look the matter squarely in the face, she says, and admit that their imbecilities, their diseases, their unhandsome looks, their discordant minds, ought not to be perpetuated; and let them go to work manfully to make the best of themselves by eschewing marriage.-Let them be honest, hearty old maids and bachelors, earning money for the good of others, teaching and farming, and helping on good and wholesome ideas. "The true, good, handsome men and women adapted to marriage ought to be treated with distinguished honor in the world, as benefactors of the race, as foreshadowing that beautiful future when we shall be hardly lower than the angels and covered with glory and honor." And she further tells us that one reason why it is well to marry a pretty woman in preference to a plain one, is that the former is more free from jealusy and discontent than the latter. Being better satisfied with herself, she is more likely to be pleased with others. Is Mrs. Elizabeth Oakes Smith a pretty woman?—Balt. Com.

A STATUE TO OLIVER CROMWELL.—In the British House of Commons on the 12th of March, Mr. Candish asked the First Commissioner of Works if there would be any objection on the part of the government to place a statue of Oliver Cromwell in Westminster Hall, between the statues of Charles the First and Charles the Second.

Lord J. Manners concluded his reply to this question as follows: He could say that it was not the intention to propose to the House a vote for the crection of a statue of Oliver Cromwell in the series of sovereigns of the Royal Houses of Stuart and

Brunswick. ("Hear," and a laugh.)
Mr. Candish would put his question in another form. In the event of the public or of private persons executing a statue of Oliver Cromwell, would the government allow it to be placed in Westminster Hall? (A laugh.)
Lord J. Manners said that if the honorable gentleman would give him notice of any further question that he wished to put to him he would be happy to answer it.

ESTABLISHED AS A REFUGE FROM QUACKERY. THE ONLY PLACE WHERE A CURE CAN BE OBTAINED.

DR. JOHNSON has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, and only Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs. Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languer, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose, or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels-those Terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth-secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible. YOUNG MEN,

Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an ultimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE. Married Persons, or Young Men comtemplating marriage, being aware of Physical Weak-ness, Organic Debility, Deformities, speedily cured. He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously conflde in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety .-Young persons are too apt to commit ex-cesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishwith ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unlitting them for either business, study, society or marriage. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory. Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced: Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, neryous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN,

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit fre quently learned from evil companions, or at chool, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contem-MARRIAGE, reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote commbial happiness. "Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prosp et hearly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own. DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votsry of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, necturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palste of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thou-
